

Commission A (Electromagnetic Metrology) Activity Report

September 2014 - December 2014

1. International Meetings in the Period

Conference on Asia-Pacific Microwave Conference (APMC2014) was held in Sendai, Japan from November 4 to 7, 2014.

The 39th International conference on Infrared, Millimeter and THz Waves (IRMMW-THz 2014) was held in Tucson, AZ, USA from September 14 to 19, 2014.

General Assembly of Asia Pacific Metrology Programme (APMP) 2014 was held in Daejeon, Korea from September 19 to 27, 2014. Together with APMP Symposium and a General Assembly, Executive Committee (EC) meeting, meetings of 11 Technical Committees (TCs), and Developing Economies' Committee (DEC) meeting, symposium was held.

84th Automatic RF techniques Group (ARFTG) conference, regarding the new frontiers for microwave measurement was held in Boulder, Colorado, USA from December 2 to 5, 2014.

Precise Time and Time Interval Systems and Applications (PTTI) 2014 was held in Boston, Massachusetts USA from December 1 to 4, 2014, which was sponsored by The Institute of Navigation (ION).

6th Thailand-Japan Microwave (TJMW2013) was held at Bangkok, Thailand from November 26 to 28, 2014.

2. Future Meeting

85th Automatic RF techniques Group (ARFTG) meeting regarding Measurements and Techniques for 5G Applications will be held in Phoenix, USA from May 17 to 22, 2015 in conjunction with the International Microwave Symposium (IMS2015)

Conference in Laser and Electro-Optics (CLEO 2015) will be in San Jose, USA from May 10 to 15, 2015, which includes the topics of the laser and its applications for optical frequency standards.

Joint conference of the IEEE-international Frequency Control Symposium (IFCS) and European Frequency and Time Forum (IFCS-EFTF 2015) will be held in Denver, Colorado, USA from April 12 to 16, 2015.

International Conference on Electromagnetics in Advanced Applications (ICEAA 2015) will be held in San Diego, California, USA from June 9 to 12 2015.

The 36th Progress In Electromagnetics Research Symposium (PIERS) will be held in Prague, Czech from July 6 to 9, 2015.
